

COLEGIO INTERNACIONAL DE CARACAS PARENT ALLIANCE

All CIC parents are invited to a very special Parent Alliance Thursday, January 21st. CIC is proud have Dr. Jane E. Pollock (5:15-6:00) and Dr. Ruth Imershein (4:15-5:00) here on campus for two parent presentations. Presentations will take place in the CIC auditorium. Child minding will be available from 4:15-6:00 PM with the understanding that children must remain with CIC staff members. Both presentations will take place in the school auditorium.

Dr. Jane E. Pollock is the director of Learning Horizon, Inc. Specializing in the areas of teaching and supervising learning. Dr. Pollock consults with schools around the world to help improve student learning and improve teaching. Dr. Pollock is a former CIC student and has earned degrees from Duke University and University of Colorado. Dr. Pollock will focus her parent presentation on parenting strategies that help improve student learning and confidence. Please join us to learn more from our keynote speaker, Dr. Jane Pollock. You can visit Jane's website at: <http://www.improvestudentlearning.com/About-Us.aspx>

Dr. Ruth Imershien comes to us from Lima, Peru where she is the regional psychiatrist for the US State Department. Dr. Imershien has been serving children all over the world for the past 25 years and has three grown children of her own. Dr. Imershien will discuss how children experience anxiety and depression. Anxiety in children is expected and normal at specific times in development and under certain circumstances. To some degree the same is true for Depression in children. So, how do we as parents know when it is a phase which will pass, and when to seek consultation with a professional? Come join us and learn more from Dr. Imershien.
